You Are The Master of Your Destiny! Roland Byrd Book Excerpt (Introduction): There was a time when I hated myself. I thought I was worthless, a waste of flesh. I felt like the world, and my family would be better off without me. I didn't believe I was worthy of love or mercy. I was so caught up in my own misery that I couldn't empathize with others. I couldn't see past my own pain, so how could I truly open my eyes and heart to others? I hated the person I'd become but believed I was doomed to be that man, that there was nothing I could do about it. The thought of personal transformation was as alien to me as the concept of freedom to one born into captivity. You might hear about it, you might even dream of it, but you don't believe it's possible. Not deep in your heart where it matters. I lived nearly 36 years of my life that way. Wanting to be more, dreaming of being more-of being better, but unable to believe it was possible. Then I had an awakening....
